Fall 2020 Course Request Process

- Members will have five days (August 17 - 21) to request and prioritize their courses and lectures
- *Special Consideration: If you were registered in a Spring 2020 course or lecture that got cancelled due to the pandemic closing AND the program is being offered in the fall, you already have a seat in that program and DO NOT have to register for it in the Request Process. You will receive information via email about which programs you have a spot in. If you no longer want that seat, let us know and we will remove you from it. You can register for 6 additional programs.
- Members can request up to 6 programs—any combination of courses and lectures
- Members can make adjustments to their requests up until Friday, August 21 at 4pm
- TCU will run the computer-generated Request Allocation program to place members in courses and lectures based on listed priorities, space, etc in a lottery fashion.
- Members will receive confirmation of their courses and lectures by Wednesday, August 26
- After the conclusion of the Request and Allocation period, members can sign up for any remaining offerings—no limit beginning on August 27.

4-WEEK COURSES

Greek Mythology in the Visual Arts

This course will explore Greek Mythology and how, through the centuries, it has helped artists to communicate love, anger, loyalty, danger, justice and injustice. The Greeks did not worship ugly idols but created instead a constellation of beautiful radiant gods. We will discuss the most salient myths and legends of the Greek lore.

The Empire Strikes Back: The British Invasion of American Music in the 1960s

The Beatles took America by storm in 1964, and opened the door for a host of other British musical acts. For the rest of the decade the Brits ruled the charts. Some were one-hit wonders; others like the Rolling Stones, endured. Join me as we take a walk through a seminal rock era. We will listen to a lot of golden oldies and discuss the different acts and their musical influence.

1950's American Music: From Big Band to Rock & Roll

Are you curious about the music your parents listened to? It wasn't just Vienna waltzes and Benny Goodman. The Fifties was a decade that saw the end of the Big Band sound and the beginnings of rock 'n' roll. It also had R&B, doo-wop, the crooners, and other styles barely remembered today. Come take a sentimental journey through the last innocent era of music.

4-WEEK COURSES

Famous Supreme Court Cases on Sensitive Subjects

Each week I will cover three or four Supreme Court cases that made headlines in their day (and still do sometimes). Week one will focus on patriotism, specifically on whether Jehovah's Witness children may be forced by the state to say the pledge of allegiance to the flag. The third case is not a Witness case, but has to do with burning the American flag. Week two will focus on laws compelling prayer and Bible reading in public school. Week three will focus on teaching evolution in public schools. Week four will feature cases on persons who sought to be exempt from the draft into the military because of their religiously-based conscientious objections to war.

Vote Smart

It's another big election year and it is more important than ever to be a well-informed voter. Project Vote Smart was started in the 1950's to collect and organize FACTS related to political candidates in US elections. It is a non-profit, non-partisan organization that helps educate voters on candidates by providing biographies, issue positions, voting records, lists of major financial supporters, etc. After a brief profile of the organization, this lecture will explore the resources available from Vote Smart and how to navigate the features on its website, which now include "fact checker" features. Focus is on the tools available from Vote Smart and not on any specific candidates. There will be no discussion nor endorsement of specific candidates or issues.

Margaret Mitchell's Gone with the Wind Revisited: The True Story of the Civil War in Georgia

More than 30 million copies of Gone with the Wind have been sold worldwide and it was one of the most influential books of the twentieth century. The movie version in 1939 still remains one of the most successful films in box-office history. But does Mitchell's story live up to the expectations of a Civil War historian? We will discuss the wartime events depicted in the book, with a focus on Gen. William T. Sherman's capture of Atlanta and his March to the Sea (from Atlanta to Savannah) in 1864 and how it touched the people of Georgia, especially Mitchell's fictional characters of Scarlett O'Hara, Rhett Butler, and others.

The Old Chisholm Trail: From Cow Path to Tourist Stop

Controversy over the name and route of the Chisholm Trail has persisted over time; and the popularity of late nineteenth-century Wild West shows, dime novels, and twentieth-century radio, movie, and television western drama has propelled the bygone era of the cattle trail into myth. The rise of automobile tourism, potential economic impact of tourists, and the appearance of numerous "historical" markers based on little more than hearsay contributed to the Chisholm Trail legend. Primary documents and sources that may have been unavailable to previous historians will be used to offer a new look at the Old Chisholm Trail.

The Bankhead Highway was the nation's first year-round transcontinental highway, extending from Washington, DC, to San Diego. Roughly a third of its 3,000 mile length was Texas Highway No. 1, from Texarkana to El Paso. Alabama Senator John H. Bankhead was influential in passage of the "Good Roads Act," which in 1916 made federal funds available to states, for the first time, to share the costs of better roads. The Texas Highway Dept. followed in 1917, and construction of Texas 1 soon followed. The group will explore how all that came about and the historical significance of the result.

LITERATURE & WRITING

4-WEEK COURSES

In Science Fiction We Dream, Part 2 - Faith and Philosophy in the Stories of Ted Chiang

Science fiction and fantasy have traditionally provided new ways of looking at the world and our place in it. American author Ted Chiang, whose writing formed the basis for the movie Arrival, opens numerous doors to conversation about important issues of faith and philosophy through his short stories. Through four of Chiang's short stories this class will examine four important questions about human life:

Session 1: What is Destiny?: Story of Your Life

Session 2: Are We Unique?: The Great Silence

Session 3: How Can We Deal With Suffering?: Hell is the Absence of God

Session 4: Can We Forgive?: The Merchant and the Alchemist's Gate

An African Jesus in Fiction

Most contemporary Christians practice their faith outside Europe and North America, in places like Africa and Asia, and recent studies explain the growth of such Global South or Non-Western Christianity in sociological, anthropological and historical terms. This one-time lecture addresses "Jesus of the Deep Forest," a poetry collection by Afua Kuma, an illiterate farmer and traditional midwife from the forested hills of Ghana's Eastern Region. Familiar biblical themes and allusions are present in "Jesus of the Deep Forest," so scripture, which was taught to her in her native language, shapes her understanding. Yet she adapts some of the more recognizable biblical characters and teachings to her Ghanaian setting. She re-configures them in a way that reflects and affirms her culture. Silver Frogs will read this fiction and discuss its African Jesus.

4-WEEK COURSES

How We Decide: The Surprising Influence that Culture and "Fake" News has on Decisions

The course explains and demonstrates with examples and video clips how human brains are evolutionarily wired to make decisions. We are heavily influenced by culture, friends, and mass/social media to make decisions that are frequently wrong or illogical. Awareness of the power of these influences will provide students with improved ability to resist manipulation and make good decisions in life and politics. Various typical human biases, instincts, and fallacious arguments will be reviewed, most by use of humorous and entertaining examples. Tools and suggestions will be provided to improve class member ability to think critically before making decisions.

White Fragility

Using Robin Diangelo's recently published book, White Fragility: Why It's So Hard for White People to Talk About Racism as our text, this class will seek an understanding of how being white shapes our perspectives, experiences and responses in conversations about race. We will discuss several key themes from Diangelo's book, including: the mythology of whiteness, the power of socialization and culture, implicit bias, the evolution of our language around racial comments. In addition, we will consider some new definitions of racism, prejudice, discrimination and white supremacy as the author applies them in our 21st century America.

Increased Resilience and Happiness after the Pandemic

This class focuses on activities that have been demonstrated to enhance happiness and resilience. Although inheritance and circumstances play roles in our level of happiness, we also have some control over how happy we are. The course is based on the book The How of Happiness by Sonja Lyubomirsky, who writes that studies suggest that up to 40% of our happiness is within our power to change. The course discusses twelve activities and encourages participants to discover the activities best suited for them.

4-WEEK COURSES

Martin Luther and the Protestant Reformation

2017 was the 500th anniversary of an event that virtually all historians regard as the beginning of the Protestant Reformation. This Silver Frogs course will be an introduction to the personality and theology of Martin Luther (1483-1546) and how those led to a schism in Catholicism that became Protestantism. There will not be enough time to cover Luther's entire life, so the course will concentrate on those years in which Luther developed a theology that was inconsistent with traditional Catholic theology and how that theology led to the development of a new movement within Christendom, namely, Protestantism. Course materials will also include a book by Graham Tomlin, Luther and His World, which is a very satisfactory introduction to this subject.

Our Brains . . . and Our Faiths

Religions are ubiquitous because they meet basic human needs. In recent decades the revolution in the study of how our brains work has helped to explain how our religions work. What is faith and why do even atheists depend on it? What is spirituality - biologically as well as religiously? How much free will do we have, and where do classic Jewish and Christian notions of human nature such as "original sin" fit in? Might there even be evolutionary and thus biological roots to our morality? The course will be based on, but go beyond, Rabbi Mecklenburger's book, Our Religious Brains.

Meet Howard Thurman: MLK Spiritual Advisor, College Dean & Author

In every age there are women and men of all races, genders, and cultures who are public standouts. They make unique contributions; they are recognized; and then they often are forgotten. One such person was Howard Thurman (1899-1981) who is being rediscovered today. He was Dean of the Chapel at two universities: Howard and Boston. In 1944 he was co-founder/minister of an interracial San Francisco church. He was a spiritual advisor to Martin Luther King, Jr. and author of many books. In this session we will quickly explore his life, sample his published meditations, and consider how he speaks to our contemporary situation.

The Changing American Religious Landscape

The American religious landscape is ongoing major challenge and change today. The change is most fully documented by a Pew Foundation study, but TV news, stories in newspaper and social media almost daily report one or more new developments. The overview of this landscape will focus on current issues in major groups like Baptist, Methodist, and Episcopalian. Changes in other religious communities will be noted. While the issues are cultural and religious, evidence of this landscape shift will be noted in the Fort Worth/Dallas area. Lots of problems and questions, few answers... yet exciting and important. How Ancient DNA & Modern Dating Techniques Illuminate the Genealogy of Humanity

Over time, archaeologists have traced human history with artifacts left behind by past societies. Since the 1960's, new scientific tools, such as radiocarbon dating, have transformed the discipline of archaeology. In just the last two decades, mapping the human genome combined with ability to reconstruct ancient DNA has revolutionized our knowledge of human history. In this class, we will review new science and how it is informing us about our past. The Weirdness of Quantum Mechanics

Fundamental physics teaches us about how the universe is designed. Quantum mechanics shows us that at the fundamental level the design is very strange indeed. Particles behave as both particles and waves; properties seem not to exist until they are measured; and entangled particles seem to communicate over long distances almost instantaneously. All of this defies normal human intuition. This class will discuss these ideas in a non-mathematical way. While we will avoid math, we will discuss experiments that require some thought to understand. People who attend this class should come prepared to think hard about concepts that defy intuition.

Health Supplements: Hope or Hype?

The health supplement/nutraceutical industry has grown to almost $40 billion a year. 65% of all Americans regularly take one or more products. This is despite the lack of science regarding efficacy, the absence of strict manufacturing standards, or oversight about safety, side effects, and benefits. We examine the beginnings of today's industry, the underlying science, marketing, dangers, and beliefs. TCU Silver Frogs Fall 2020 Instructors

Please show your appreciation and thanks to all of our wonderful volunteer instructors!

Lee Ancona: Lee C. Ancona, PhD is currently a staff Member in the TCU Athletic Department (Tutor/Academic Advisor). He is a volunteer in the Leadership Program, Neeley School of Business at TCU. Lee is a retired Faculty member of the University of North Texas.

Randi Anderson: Randi will be hosting 8 different UT Southwestern faculty from Fort Worth and Dallas presenting. Their biographies will be distributed on the first day of the lecture series.

Penny Armstrong: Dr. Penny Armstrong has been a teacher and school administrator for over 30 years. She has taught at Texas Wesleyan University and Tarleton State University in the areas of learning and cognition and school administration. Penny is the author of What Teachers Expect in Reform and is the owner of Armstrong Innovative School Solutions.

Anne Bailey: Anne is a retired history professor and specialist in Civil War history. She is the author/editor of eight books, numerous book chapters, and over 300 articles and book reviews.

Shari Barnes: Shari retired from TCU as an HR administrator and has finally found time to whittle down her own list of bucket books. In addition, she is active in her church and community and serves on several boards of directors. "Give me my grandchildren, travel, a good cup of coffee, Silver Frogs, and my books, and I'm a happy camper."

Crystal Barth: Crystal is a retired government employee who took up the challenge of tracing her family genealogy after she retired more than 20 years ago. She is a member of several national, state, county, and local genealogical societies and is currently Treasurer for the Fort Worth Genealogical Society.

Denis Benjamin: Denis earned his medical degree at the University of Witwatersrand in Johannesburg, South Africa, emigrating to the USA in 1970 to complete a residency in pathology at the University of Washington in Seattle. He practiced pediatric pathology at the children's hospitals in Seattle, Washington and Fort Worth, Texas. He was Professor of Pathology, and Laboratory Medicine and Adjunct Professor of Pediatrics at the University of Washington, president of the Society for Pediatric Pathology and editor-in-chief of Pediatric and Developmental Pathology. He was also involved in a large number of international health initiatives, some with Project Hope.

Larry Borne: Larry Borne is an amateur archeologist, who has traveled to Arizona, New Mexico, and Colorado. The one thing that is usually still present at an archeological site is their pottery. He has been in the homes of present day potters and enjoy the conversation of learning how they learned from their mothers and grandmothers. He find it fascinating and realizes the wonderful talent these people have.

Sian Borne: Sian is a retired RN and Human Resources Professional who came to Fort Worth from England after graduating with her RN. Winchester is the place she calls home in England and her mother still resides there. She returns to Winchester every couple of years and although the center of the city has changed, much of the essential charm remains.

Ken Bowers: Ken is a quiet, mild mannered gentleman. He has travelled a bit, to some of the odd corners of the world. He adheres to Satchel Paige's advice, "Don't look back, they might be gaining on you."

Kathy Bowser: Kathy, a recently retired pastor, currently leads contemplation, meditation and prayer groups in the Ignatian tradition. Her professional education includes studies in Christian theology, scripture interpretation, world religions, worship and prayer practices from institutions as diverse as Immaculata University and Brite Divinity School. Her 35+ year career in the not for profit sector is just as eclectic as her formal training, encompassing fund raising, volunteer development, staff training, organizational design, and executive management with the American Heart Association and the March of Dimes.

Tena Burrell: A member of the Society of Certified Senior Advisors and active in the senior care community of D/FW, Tena is president of Financial and Estate Planning Services with thirty years of experience. Her practice focuses on the unique needs of retirees, including financial management for caregivers, long term care options and social issues facing the family, as well as retirement and estate planning, tax planning and investment portfolio management. Tina is a volunteer board member of the Grapevine Senior Advisory Council, member of the HEB and Grapevine Chambers of Commerce, and works closely with many assisted living, memory care and long term care facilities in the Metroplex. TCU Silver Frogs

TCU Silver Frogs Fall 2020

Course & Allocation Process: August 17 – 21

If you were registered in a Spring 2020 program that was cancelled due to the pandemic AND it's being offered this fall, you automatically have a seat in the class and DO NOT need to register again for it. You will receive an email outlining those classes. You can register for six other programs

Step 1: Go to your account: www.lifelong.tcu.edu and select TCU Silver Frogs from the top band.

A screenshot of a web browser displaying the TCU Extended Education website. The browser's address bar shows 'lifelong.tcu.edu'. The website has a dark purple header with the TCU logo and the text 'TCU Extended Education'. Below the header is a navigation menu with links for 'HOME', 'COMMUNITY EDUCATION', 'TCU SILVER FROGS', 'PROFESSIONAL EDUCATION', 'CREATE AN ACCOUNT/SIGN-IN', and 'REEL RELIGION'. The main content area features a large image of a fountain in front of a brick building. Overlaid on the image is the text: 'Welcome to TCU Extended Education' followed by 'WELCOME TO THE NEW & IMPROVED WEBSITE FOR THE SPRING 2020 SEMESTER. PLEASE CREATE AN ACCOUNT (EVEN IF YOU'VE TAKEN CLASSES BEFORE) SO YOU CAN REGISTER!' and 'QUESTIONS? 817-257-7132 OR LIFELONG@TCU.EDU'. The Windows taskbar is visible at the bottom of the screenshot, showing the time as 8:34 AM on 1/7/2020.

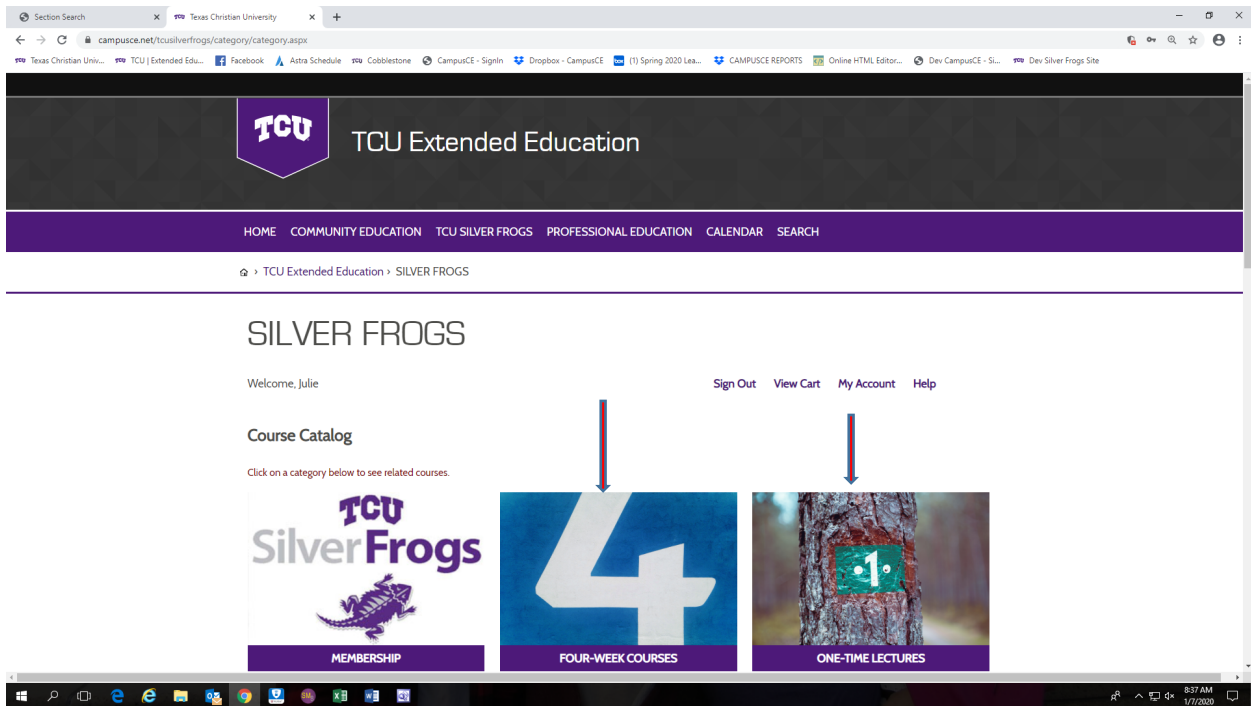

Step 2: Click the Sign In Button

The screenshot shows a web browser window displaying the TCU Extended Education website. The browser's address bar shows the URL `campusce.net/tcusilverfrogs/category/category.aspx`. The website header features the TCU logo and the text "TCU Extended Education". A navigation menu includes links for HOME, COMMUNITY EDUCATION, TCU SILVER FROGS, PROFESSIONAL EDUCATION, CALENDAR, and SEARCH. Below the navigation, the breadcrumb trail reads "TCU Extended Education > SILVER FROGS". The main heading is "SILVER FROGS". To the right of this heading, there are three links: "Sign In", "View Cart", and "Help". A red arrow points directly to the "Sign In" link. Below the heading is a "Course Catalog" section with the instruction "Click on a category below to see related courses." Three category tiles are displayed: "MEMBERSHIP" (with a frog logo), "FOUR-WEEK COURSES" (with a large number 4), and "ONE-TIME LECTURES" (with a tree trunk and a number 1). The Windows taskbar at the bottom shows the time as 8:35 AM on 1/7/2020.

Step 3: Sign in to your account with your username and password

Step 4: Select up to six 4-week courses or lectures or a combination of both for a max of 6 programs total!

Step 5: Click the Continue Shopping button to add more programs. You can also click the back button or TCU Silver Frogs in the purple banner to navigate between courses and lectures. You have from August 17 at 9am to August 21 at 4pm to make your selections—there's no rush!!

The screenshot shows a web browser window with multiple tabs open, including 'Texas Christian University - Pro...', 'Course Management', 'TCU Extended Education', 'Student Profile', 'Texas Christian University', and 'Shopping Cart'. The address bar shows 'dev.campusce.net/tcusilverfrogs/cart/index.aspx'. The page header features the TCU logo and 'TCU Extended Education'. A navigation menu includes 'HOME', 'COMMUNITY EDUCATION', 'TCU SILVER FROGS', 'PROFESSIONAL EDUCATION', 'CALENDAR', and 'SEARCH'. The breadcrumb trail is 'TCU Extended Education > SILVER FROGS'. The main heading is 'SILVER FROGS'. Below it, a welcome message says 'Welcome, Terry' and navigation links for 'Sign Out', 'View Cart', 'My Account', and 'Help' are visible. The 'Shopping Cart' section has a sub-heading and a message: 'Preview the items in your cart. When you're ready to purchase, click Check Out.' A red arrow points to a purple 'Continue Shopping' button. Below this is a table with two columns: 'ITEM' and 'PRICE DETAILS'. The table contains one row for '60's R&R: When the Music Was Hummable and the Lyrics Mattered' with details: 'Section A', '9:00 AM-10:30 AM 3/6/2020-4/3/2020', '4 Sessions BASS, Room: 1004', and 'Instructor: Richard Selcer'. The price is '$0.00' with a 'Remove from Waitlist' link. The 'TOTAL:' is '$0.00'. At the bottom, there is a question 'How did you hear about us?' with a dropdown menu showing '--Select One--'. The Windows taskbar at the bottom shows the time as 2:03 PM on 12/20/2019.

Course Priorities

Please number the courses/lectures requested in order of preference with #1 begin highest priority, #2 being second highest priority, etc., for a maximum of six programs. The computer software runs the allocation in an objective fashion, enrolling members based on available space and priority levels. During the week of January 6 - 10, you can modify your priorities until 5pm on Jan 10. If you decide to delete a requested course or lecture, you must contact TCU Extended Education 817-257-7132 to have that done. You will be notified of which programs you are confirmed for after the allocation process has ended.

Important: You must "Save Priorities" in order for this ranking of your preferences to be recorded (see button above the listing).
